

Register Today: Tribal Consultation on the Final Rule for Housing Counseling Certification Sessions – January/February 2021

HUD is conducting two Tribal consultation sessions to obtain feedback from Tribes and Tribally Designated Housing Entities (TDHEs) on the HUD Housing Counseling Certification implementation as it applies to the Indian Housing Block Grant (IHBG) and the Indian Community Development Block Grant (ICDBG) programs. This Dear Tribal Leader Letter explains the background for the implementation of the Housing Counseling: New Certification Requirements Final Rule which was published on December 14, 2016 and the process for these upcoming Tribal consultation sessions. Objectives

These sessions will allow participants to:

- Provide feedback on the HUD Housing Counseling Certification implementation
- Understand the Housing Counseling New Certification Requirements Final Rule

The Tribal consultation sessions will focus primarily on Tribal feedback, rather than questions for HUD. Therefore, if you do have questions about the consultation, please contact HUD at tribalconsult@hudexchange.info.

Who Should Attend?

These sessions are intended for Tribal leaders and Tribal housing practitioners.

Schedule and Registration

Due to the ongoing COVID-19 National Emergency, these Tribal consultations will be conducted virtually, via webinar. The content will be the same in each session, so please choose the date that works best for you.
