

TUNICA BILOXI HOUSING DEPARTMENT (TBHD) EMERGENCY ASSISTANCE PROGRAM (EAP)

GENERAL

Tunica-Biloxi Housing Department (TBHD) – EMERGENCY ASSISTANCE PROGRAM (EAP)

(EAP): Enables families who are low-income and are at risk of losing their homes due to non-payment of their monthly housing obligations as a result of unanticipated crisis circumstances beyond their control and other eligibility criteria to obtain monetary assistance towards their housing payment. The family must meet all of TBHD's requirements associated with obtaining this assistance and demonstrate that other available assistance has been accessed. This program is designed to provide emergency assistance to low-income Tunica Biloxi members with a housing-related crisis located in the reservation service area up to $3,000 once per year.

ELIGIBLE RECIPIENTS

TBHD EHPA funds can be used to assist Tunica-Biloxi tenants only who meet all of the following minimum eligibility criteria described in the following tables:

CATEGORY	ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA
Tribal Affiliation	Enrolled Tunica-Biloxi Tribal Member
Property Location	On- or off-reservation
Income	Must be low-income as determined by the HUD National Low-income standards.
Counseling	Must agree to participate in housing counseling AND financial management training as required by Tunica-Biloxi Housing Department
Residence	Must live in home or apartment as permanent residence.

Financial assistance is for low-income families with incomes up to 80% of median income in accordance with HUD national income limits published annually.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE

The evaluation rating process will favor only those applications which can demonstrate that utilization of other resources has been exhausted. All applicants must also be able to demonstrate that other repayment arrangements have been attempted prior to attempting a housing payment reduction.

1. Death

Requests for assistance must be made to the TBHD. Consideration for assistance will only be granted where there is a serious financial impact on the household's ability to meet their housing obligations. It is critical that all avenues available through the Tunica-Biloxi Tribe be exhausted prior to submitting an application to the TBHD for Emergency Housing Payment Assistance.

2. Catastrophic Illness

Requests for assistance must be made to the TBHD. Consideration for assistance will only be granted where there is a serious financial impact on the household's ability to meet the housing obligations as determined by the applicant and the Tunica-Biloxi. It is critical that all avenues available through the Tunica-Biloxi be exhausted prior to receiving assistance from the TBHD for Emergency Housing Payment Assistance. Documentation must be provided showing the additional health expenses have been incurred and the impact of the additional expenses on other debt.

3. Loss of Employment

Requests for assistance, such as General Assistance, TANF, unemployment, and unemployment compensation (if applicable), must be completed or in progress and supported with written documentation prior to receiving assistance from the TBHD. Consideration for assistance will only be provided where there is a serious financial impact on the household's ability to meet the housing obligations as determined by the applicant and the TBHD. It is critical that all avenues available through the Tunica-Biloxi Tribe be exhausted prior to submitting an application to the TBHD for Emergency Housing Payment Assistance.

4. High Risk of Eviction/ Foreclosure/ Homelessness

Requests for assistance must be made to the TBHD. Consideration for assistance will only be granted for circumstances which are beyond the normal control of the individual and the loss of one's home is at serious risk. Additionally, all other avenues for relief must have been exhausted including the conversion of an individual's assets to cash. An application for assistance is incomplete till all the prerequisite requirements are fulfilled. Additionally, the applicant must complete a budget plan with the TBHD and the Tunica-Biloxi Social Services Departments as a prevention and monitoring tool for the individual.

5. Acts of God

Requests for assistance must be made to the TBHD. Consideration for assistance will only be granted for circumstances which are beyond the normal control of the individual and has resulted in either the permanent or temporary loss of one's home. Acts of God include weather, fire, war, etc. All other avenues for relief must be exhausted including the FEMA, insurance, federal relief, etc. while simultaneously applying for assistance. Tribal programs must be accessed to obtain any other relief that may be available to the applicant.

AMOUNT OF TBHD EHPA
